Coollest Things to Try During the 2022 FIFA World Cup

Check out the top things to try on your trip to Doha during the upcoming FIFA 2022 World Cup.

Shopping in the City | Things to do in Doha

Boasting many historical sites, Doha is a city with several shopping sites, from historical and archeological to local and modern. The city is an ideal place for shopaholics who choose to acquire traditional shopping sites or purchase unique items.

Take the example of the famous Souq Waqif building site, for example. Located in Doha, Souq Waqif is one of the best tourist attractions in Qatar for the 2022 FIFA World Cup.

Home to Qatar's finest buildings and restaurants reminiscent of the country's ancient charms, Souq Waqif is home to many of the world's most exotic retailers. The prime time to visit the market is in the evening when city temperatures are good enough to see the Doha area.

Similarly, Doha has many modern shopping malls like Doha Festival City, which is said to be one of the largest in the country, or Villagio Mall, which reminds me of Venice because of its indoor canals and a canopy roof with the first boating in the mall itself.

Doha watersheds

What is better than the pleasures of Qatar's water features? Yes, if you are a tourist who has visited the city at least once, you know what I am talking about. As one of the most attractive locations globally with beautiful beaches and blue waters, Doha offers many of the most popular water sports facilities that travelers can try in the city for the FIFA World Cup 2022.

Katara Beach, the only public beach in Doha, is a great place to scuba dive and take a walk. Visitors to the city can even cross a jet ski trip around the shores of Doha and see a glimpse of the Pearl or Doha Corniche in the blue waters.

Apart from that, here are some of Qatar's top destinations and famous works.

- Kayaking- Al Thakira Natural Reserve
- Disruption- Katara Beach
- Banana Boat- Banana Island
- KiteSurging- Sealine Beach
- Scuba Diving – Poseidon Dive Center

Visit museums

For the one interested in exploring the rich history of a particular part of the world, museums in Doha are expected to be a real treat during the 2022 FIFA World Cup.

So, if you are a fan of cars, the Sheikh Faisal Bin Qassim Al Thani Museum has its private car collection to hit the senses. The museum has about 300 vintage cars for its students that visitors to the museum can see. What else? The museum contains about 15000 artifacts that have been collected over 50 years by Sheikh Faisal himself.
